WOLFGANG AMADEUS MOZART 1756–1791

A child star from Salzburg, Mozart wrote more than 600 works in just 35 years. The Magic Flute is a fairy tale in which Prince Tamino and the bird catcher Papageno brave trials of fire and water to win wisdom and love.

Did you know?

At 14, Mozart heard Allegri's Miserere, a work the Vatican guarded closely, in the Sistine Chapel, and wrote it out from memory afterward.
